

Withdrawal Symptoms

Population: pregnant women who smoke, aged 18 - 42

Intervention: abstaining from smoking for 24 hours

Control: 'smoking as usual' group to establish that smoking abstinence increases withdrawal symptoms

Outcome: after 24 hours pregnant women had significantly less severe tobacco withdrawal than non-pregnant women

